Biography

Aazaar Abdul-Rahim, the co-defensive coordinator at the University of Maryland, has built a reputation for blending strong recruitment skills with adaptive defensive strategies. A native of the Washington, D.C. area, Abdul-Rahim achieved success at the high school level before making collegiate stops at Alabama, Boston College, and UMass. His return to the DMV region at Maryland has led to a surge in local recruiting success, with the Terrapins attracting some of the best talents in the area. Abdul-Rahim's defenses prioritize aggression, versatility, and discipline, aiming to mold athletes who are both physically dominant and mentally prepared.

Statement

My mission is to develop complete student-athletes: disciplined on the field, resilient in life, and prepared to impact their communities.
