Biography

Frank Marino has been the head coach of the women's soccer program since 2009, where since then, the Regals have made the SCIAC postseason tournament every year and have won six SCIAC championships. In 2023, Marino led the Regals to the NCAA Division 3 National Championship and was named the NCAA National Coaching Staff of the Year. In this historic season, CLU was the 1st unranked team to make it to the national final and was the 1st unranked team to win the National Championship. It was also the 1st national title in the program's history and the 1st SCIAC team to win the women's national title. Marino is the all-time winningest coach in Regals Soccer history with a record of 203-63-42. Marino and his staff were named the 2017 Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) Coaching Staff of the Year following their first NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance. In 2019, Marino and the Regals went to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years. In his 14th season with the Regals, Marino is 25th in NCAA Division III Women's Soccer Coaching Records for winningest active coaches (minimum of five years), with a win percentage of .716 and a record of 203-63-42.
