Biography

Jeff Lindgren is the longest tenured coach at Cal Lutheran. He was named the head coach of men's golf in the summer of 1990, and in 2012, the women's program started. As both the coach of the men's and women's golf teams, Lindgren has led the Kingsmen and Regals to new heights under his tutelage, producing five All-Americans and many more All-SCIAC selections. In 2013, the men's team made a return trip to the NCAA Championships after finishing fourth in the SCIAC. All-American Mikey McGinn led the Kingsmen to a 24th place finish and came in 64th individually.
