Biography

Joe Kasper is currently the defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, where he leads a secondary regarded as one of the strongest units in the NFL. Kasper's journey began with roles in both collegiate programs and the professional ranks, honing his approach to pass defense and coverage schemes. Renowned for his meticulous film study, he instills disciplined technique and situational awareness in his players. Since joining the Eagles, Kasper has helped elevate the team's pass defense, guiding them to deep playoff runs and cultivating Pro Bowl and All-Pro talent in the back end.

Statement

Great secondaries are built on discipline, communication, and the relentless pursuit of perfection—every rep, every practice, every game.

Achievement

Top-Tier Pass Defense

Instrumental in the Eagles ranking among league leaders in fewest passing yards allowed and in takeaways. Eagles have consistently been among the NFL leaders in interceptions and passes defended since my arrival.

Super Bowl Appearance (2022 Season)

The Eagles secondary was a critical element of the team's trip to the championship.

Pro Bowl/All-Pro Honorees

Several Eagles defensive backs thrived under Kasper's mentorship and earned significant accolades.

PRINCIPLES

- Detail-Oriented - Precision in alignment and technique is key to avoiding breakdowns in coverage.
- Player Empowerment: Encourages DBs to understand defensive calls deeply and make confident real-time reads.
- High Accountability: Reminds players that each coverage mistake can yield large gains, so every rep matters.
- Positive Reinforcement: Believes in celebrating progress and fostering a winning mentality.
