PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Sam Backer

Minnesota State University | Football

Newcomer of the year (NSIC 1st All-Conference) 1,000-yard season, going into spring Sam was the third back in rotation; had an opportunity to develop him. He played Quarterback in HS (3rd All-Time in Minnesota History in Rushing) We worked on his ball security, combined his physical attributes with his speed/vision, coaching him on using his leverage/pad level for his advantage in the run game.

Developed his pass protection skills and eyes on protection for blitzing and IDs

Austin Gordon, James Johannesson & Oscar Nevermann

University of North Dakota | Football

Coached the scout team running backs (3) in charge of keeping them up to date and coached on the game plans, and development.

Andrew Trandahl

University of Mary | Football

3x freshman of the week, (50) broken tackles. The best blocking Running Back on the team; his ability to use (Speed/Balance) together to break tackles in the open field. He was a very determined competitor at the Running Backs position, he made the first defender miss always and it carried over into the game.
