Career

Assistant Coach at Sacramento State University

Coaching Description for Sacramento State

As a dedicated and passionate coach at Sacramento State, I had the privilege of developing talented athletes in the roles of running backs, wide receivers, and special teams. My coaching philosophy centers on fostering a strong work ethic, discipline, and a deep understanding of the game, ensuring that each player maximizes their potential both on and off the field.

Responsibilities:

- Running Backs Development: Designed and implemented comprehensive training programs focused on skill development, ball security, and situational awareness. Emphasized techniques in footwork, agility, and vision to enhance each player's performance and decision-making during games.
- Wide Receivers Coach: Guided wide receivers in mastering route running, catching techniques, and effective communication with quarterbacks. Fostered an environment of collaboration and trust, encouraging players to take ownership of their roles within the offense.
- Special Teams : Helped with all aspects of special teams, including kickoffs, punt returns, and field goal units. Developed strategic game plans to maximize field position and scoring opportunities while honing players' skills in coverage, blocking, and execution under pressure.
- Player Mentorship: Built strong relationships with players, providing mentorship and support to aid their personal and athletic growth. Promoted a culture of teamwork, accountability, and resilience, ensuring players were prepared to face the challenges of collegiate football.
- Game Strategy and Analysis:: Collaborated with the coaching staff to develop offensive game plans and special teams strategies, utilizing video analysis and performance metrics to refine techniques and improve overall team performance.

Through my coaching tenure at Sacramento State, I aimed to not only enhance the skills of individual players but also to contribute to a cohesive and competitive team environment. My commitment to excellence and player development has laid the groundwork for success on the field and in the lives of my athletes.

ATHLETIC CAREER

Wide Receiver — San Diego Chargers

NFL - National Football League | Football | 2006 - 2007

As a wide receiver for the San Diego Chargers, I brought my speed, route-running precision, and reliable hands to the field, contributing to the team's offensive efforts. My time with the Chargers allowed me to develop my skills at the highest professional level, learning from top-tier coaches and competing against some of the best athletes in the league.

Throughout my tenure, I demonstrated the ability to make tough catches in critical situations, create separation against NFL defenders, and contribute to team success both on and off the field. My experience in the NFL taught me the importance of discipline, focus, and resilience, preparing me for the next chapter of my football journey.

Playing for the Chargers was a milestone that helped elevate my understanding of the game, sharpen my athleticism, and solidify my commitment to excellence on every play.

Wide Receiver — San Diego state university

Mountain west | Football | 2003 - 2008

As a wide receiver for SDSU, I was known for my speed, precise route running, and reliable hands. One of my proudest moments was scoring my first touchdown against Ohio State University, the reigning national champions — a game that showcased my ability to perform under pressure on a big stage.

Throughout my time at SDSU, I contributed to a dynamic offense by creating separation, making tough catches, and turning yards after the catch into impactful plays. My experience taught me the importance of resilience, discipline, and teamwork, especially when facing top-tier competition.

I took pride in not only making plays downfield but also blocking on the perimeter to support the team's overall success. Playing at SDSU helped me develop the skill, confidence, and competitive mindset needed to excel at the highest levels of football.

Wide Receiver — Delta

Junior college | Football | 2002 - 2004

During my time at Delta Junior College, I established myself as a key offensive weapon, finishing the season with 1,100 receiving yards and 8 touchdowns. My performance on the field earned me widespread recognition, culminating in being named MVP of the Shrine Bowl — a testament to my ability to perform in high-pressure situations and showcase my talents on a national stage.

Coming out of Delta JC, I was ranked as a 4-star recruit, reflecting my potential and skill level as one of the top junior college prospects. My success at Delta not only demonstrated my playmaking ability but also my dedication, work ethic, and leadership qualities.

Throughout the season, I consistently made big plays, contributed to the team's success, and prepared myself for the next level of competition. My experience at Delta JC helped me develop the skills, confidence, and resilience needed to excel in college football and beyond.
